Children and young people are growing up in a world full of rapid societal changes. Key issues include mental health and well-being,, social exclusion, violence prevention, superdiversity, technological (r)evolutions, and labour shortages in education and integrated care needs.

At the ENSA Working Group on Youth, Child, and Family, we aim to strengthen the meaningful collaborations we've built over the years. We will reflect on these societal shifts and create a strategic work plan for the next three years. Our goals include identifying key topics for sharing best practices, setting priorities for developing European projects, and seizing relevant European policies and opportunities.

Join us for an engaging program:

- key note speakers:

Prof. Dr. Jochen Devlieghere:

Researcher in the Department of Social Work and Social Pedagogy at Ghent University.

Katarina Ivankovic Knezevic:

EU, Directorate-General for Employment, Social Affairs and Inclusion.

Focus on child guarantee.

Collaborative brainstorming session to shape our three-year work plan.

Be part of this important dialogue!
